

U of M Journalism,

Thank you so much for letting us watch the movie you created! It was an amazing and interesting film! It helped me understand Sediton so much better as well as opened my eyes to how bad it was. I thought the whole story about Herman and his family was really sad and I can't believe he couldn't go to his sons funeral! Anyways, I'm really glad I got a chance to experience it! It really was awesome!

Thank you for showing the video to my class last week. The video was very interesting and I was surprised at how many people were jailed for absolutely no reason. I am glad that you could pardon those people that were wrongly accused. I am excited that we watched it before the public because it was the premiere.

It was nice of you to bring all those families together to let them know that their relatives have finally been pardoned after decades of being wrongly accused. Thanks once again.

Dear school of Journalism,

I would like to sincerely thank you for your hard work, and patriotism. One of the most important aspects of sustaining our society is making sure the truth is known about our government, good and bad. It's so important that people know the sufferings of fellow U.S. citizens in ~~the~~ time of war and strife.

I'm full of gratitude for having been able to participate in hearing, and understanding the message you worked so hard to convey. In conclusion, I would just like to say keep up the good work.

Thank you so much! That video was amazing! It was a very great opportunity you gave us. And you guys did a excellent job, of making that film. I loved how detailed it was. It gave me a really good idea of what it was like back then! You guys are amazing at what you do. And I hope to be able to see another one of your guys video's later on! Once again, Thank you!

Dear Journalism students,

Thank you for bringing that film to our class. I personally never knew about sedition & it amazes me now that I know what it is. The movie was pretty cool & knowing that it is by students is even cooler. While watching it I would of thought it had been made by a big company & was just another documentary. But it wasn't all that boring. Sure it's a documentary & basically they all have dry parts but overall I thought it was good.

Thank you for the movie and for showing it to us first, I really thought it was interesting, especially the part on how one guy was thrown into jail because he wouldn't kiss our flag. There were a lot of stuff and interesting facts about it and was very shocking too. I would like to know more about what happened. Thanks for answering a lot of questions

Sincerely:      ✓

Dear UoM, thank you for making that film for us. It was fun to watch because I had no idea this ever went on in Montana, or in the country. I hope that this film can be played on the History Channel because more people should learn about this.

Sincerely,
